For A Blissful Night's Rest!

Can't sleep? Enjoy a peaceful night's rest the natural way - with aromatherapy! Simply fill a small sachet with a blend of sleep-promoting dried herbs and essential oils, then tuck it into your pillowcase or lay it beside your head. Inhale the soft aroma, the scents calm your mind and body all night.

To make your sachet: "Use a breathable, but tightly woven, material that lets the scents softly diffuse." Sew your own cotton case, or by a pre-made sachet from a crafts store - look for one about 4" x 6" that ties closed.

"Lavender has long been used as a sleep aid, and it blends beautifully with bergamot, which has a comforting scent that you'd typically find in Earl Grey Tea,"

Combining the 2 creates a blend that gently lulls you to sleep. You'll need 1/4 cup dried lavender buds; 5 drops bergamot essential oil; 4 cotton balls, gently pulled apart; small sachet.

Add lavender buds and bergamot oil to glass bowl; gently stir. Add cottonballs; mix until scent is absorbed. Pour mixture into sachet, then tie or sew closed. To use, mix until scent is absorbed. Pour mixture into sachet, then tie or sew closed. To use, tuck dream pillow beneath pillowcase or beside you bed.

Nix stress: Citrus scents, like orange, lower your stress hormones. And patchouli's earthy-sweet aroma has an uplifting effect.

"Together, they help you forget your worries and drift off,"

1/4 cup dried orange peel, chopped; 2 drops patchouli essential oil; 4 cottonballs, pulled apart; small sachet

Add orange and patchouli oil to glass bowl; gently stir. Add cottonballs; mix until scent is absorbed. Pour mixture into sachet, then tie or sew closed. To use, tuck sachet beneath pillow case or beside your bed.

The death of Jesus occurred around the Jewish Passover, which is traditionally held on first full moon following the vernal equinox.

As the full moon can vary in each time zone, the Church said that they would use the 14th day of the lunar month instead - the Paschal Full Moon - and host Easter Day on the following Sunday.

Once the date of that moon is known, Easter Day and the Easter holidays can be determined.

LET'S TALK ABOUT RENTERS INSURANCE!

"People who have an apartment, the first thing they need to do is get renter's insurance. Many renters mistakenly believe their belongings will be replaced by the management company if something happens to their apartment. Insurance expert Pat Waldrop says that's not the case at all. "The apartment complex has no coverage whatsoever on your personal belongings," explained Waldrop, who serves as President of the Heritage Agency. "They have a master policy that covers the building, their liability, their loss of rents in the event there's a fire, but they don't have a policy that covers the tenants' belongings." Even fire officials agree that renters' insurance is one of the smartest investments a renter can make. "It allows the victim the opportunity to get on their feet a whole lot quicker and gives them that financial support as well." And experts say renter's insurance is actually very affordable. Depending on the insurance company and the type of apartment in which you live, the median price for coverage for an entire year runs only around $150.00.
